

CONTENTS

A Tribute to Suzanne Miers MARTIN A. KLEIN AND RICHARD ROBERTS	vii
Preface	xiii
Introduction Strategies of Women and Constraints of Enslavement in the Modern Americas GWYN CAMPBELL, SUZANNE MIERS, AND JOSEPH C. MILLER	i
I. The Reproductive Biology of Sugar Slavery
1. Slave Women and Reproduction in Jamaica, ca. 1776–1834 KENNETH MORGAN	27
2. Gloomy Melancholy Sexual Reproduction among Louisiana Slave Women, 1840–60 RICHARD FOLLETT	54
II. Women’s Initiatives under Slavery
3. Can Women Guide and Govern Men? Gendering Politics among African Catholics in Colonial Brazil MARIZA DE CARVALHO SOARES	79
4. A Particular Kind of Freedom Black Women, Slavery, Kinship, and Freedom in the American Southeast BARBARA KRAUTHAMER	100
5. Enslaved Women and the Law Paradoxes of Subordination in the Postrevolutionary Carolinas LAURA F. EDWARDS	128

III. Rebuilding Lives in the Caribbean: Emancipation and Its Aftermath
6.	Pricing Freedom in the French Caribbean Women, Men, Children, and Redemption from Slavery in the 1840s BERNARD MOITT	155
7.	Slave Women, Family Strategies, and the Transition to Freedom in Barbados, 1834–41 LAURENCE BROWN AND TARA INNISS	172
8.	Free but Minor Slave Women, Citizenship, Respectability, and Social Antagonism in the French Antilles, 1830–90 MYRIAM COTTIAS	186
IV. Representing Women Slaves: Masters' Fantasies and Memories in Fiction
9.	Deviant and Dangerous Proslavery Representations of Jamaican Slave Women's Sexuality, ca. 1780–1834 HENRICE ALTINK	209
10.	The Condition of the Mother The Legacy of Slavery in African American Literature of the Jim Crow Era FELIPE SMITH	231
V. Historiographical Reflections on Slavery and Women
11.	Re-modeling Slavery as If Women Mattered CLAIRE ROBERTSON AND MARSHA ROBINSON	253
12.	Domiciled and Dominated Slaving as a History of Women JOSEPH C. MILLER	284
	Contributors	313
	Index	319