

contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Foreword by Stuart D. Hobbs	xiii
Acknowledgments	xxv
Introduction	i
Looking for Work
1. The Best Location in the Nation	16
Ashtabula County and Appalachian Migration, 1900–1965
2. Coal Miner’s Daughter	47
West Virginia—A Synonym for Hard Times
3. Strong Stock for Legends	54
The Ross Boggs Family in Ashtabula County
4. The Gillespie Beachhead	65
Harry and Ruby’s Migrant Welcome Center
5. Nothin’ but Hard Times	76
Novel Forinash: Thumbing to Ohio
6. Kin from Kedron	87
The Snyder Home
7. Ten Mile’s Contributions	105
A Small West Virginia Crossroads
8. The Virginians	122
National Carbide: A Link for Virginia Migrant Workers

9. A Singin' Man's Family	131
Kentucky's Gift of Mountain Music
10. Death of a Mining Town	139
From Kempton, Maryland, to a New Life in Conneaut
11. The Boys from Belva	153
Backwoods Culture
12. Farmer's Boy	168
Hayward Ball: From the Farm to Lake County Industry
13. A Coal Miner's Life	176
Darald Spangler's Life and Car Get a Push in Ashtabula County
14. Reading, Writing, and Ohio	185
Teachers and Migration
15. Children of Thomas	193
Mining Town Migrants
16. Montani Semper Liberi	216
Daniel Gillespie: Trading Freedom for Work
17. Going Home for Good	223
Mountain Retirement Home
18. "God Love You"	232
Bittersweet Homecoming
References	239
Index	243