

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction What Is “Traditional” about Traditional Healers and Medicines?	1
PART I NEGOTIATING TRADITION IN THE ZULU KINGDOM, 1820–79
Chapter 1 Healing the Body Disease, Knowledge, and Medical Practices in the Zulu Kingdom	37
Chapter 2 Healing the Body Politic Muthi, Healers, and Nation Building in the Zulu Kingdom	67
PART II NEGOTIATING TRADITION AND CULTURAL ENCOUNTERS IN NATAL AND ZULULAND, 1830–1948
Chapter 3 Early African-White Encounters Healers, Witchcraft, and Colonial Rule, 1830–91	93
Chapter 4 Competition, Race, and Professionalization African Healers and White Medical Practitioners, 1891–1948	128
Chapter 5 African-Indian Encounters and Their Influence on African Therapeutics, 1860–1948	158
Epilogue	183
Notes	197
Glossary	247
Bibliography	251
Index	271