

CONTENTS

Introduction

NUKHET A. SANDAL AND INGO TRAUSCHWEIZER 1

Part I. Religion and Peace: Transnational Perspective

1 Peacebuilding, Humanitarianism, and the Place of Indigenous Religions

CECELIA LYNCH 15

2 Religion, Governance, and Strategic Peace in Africa

JONATHAN C. AGENSKY 33

3 Centering Interpretive and Devotional Networks as Sources of Positive Peace

South Asian Religious Traditions in Transnational Perspective

JEREMY A. RINKER 60

4 The Resurrection of Socrates

The Miracle of Dialogue

AFRA JALABI 88

Part II. Islam and Peace: Snapshots, Challenges, and Possibilities

5 “Deliver Us from Evil”

Religion and the Problem of Political Violence and Peace

LOREN D. LYBARGER 115

6	Religion, Security, and the United States' "Countering Violent Extremism" Strategy in West Africa BRANDON KENDHAMMER	139
7	Peace Processes and Theologies of Resistance The Case of the Democratic Islam Congress in Turkey NUKHET A. SANDAL	163
Part III. Christianity and Peace: Snapshots, Challenges, and Possibilities
8	Protector of the Indians? Christianity and the Indigenous People and Land of Latin America AMY ERICA SMITH	183
9	Paramilitary Funerals during the Northern Ireland "Troubles" A Missed Opportunity for Peace? MARGARET M. SCULL	208
10	Secularized and Instrumentalized? Identitarian Christianities and Populist Politics in a Postsecular Europe SLAVICA JAKELIĆ	231
	Concluding Thoughts Peacebuilding and Religious Engagement in Diplomacy PETER MANDAVILLE	259
	Contributors	271
	Index	275